Uploaded by: Lucia Elena Petrescu; 0; January 0, 2020 The contentious territorial disputes between Romania and Moldova have escalated to a new level. Under pressure from EU and US diplomacy, the heads of state of Moldova and Romania decided to hold a referendum on the future of the country, which was held on December 24, 2019. More than 44 percent of Moldovan citizens with the right to vote took part in this referendum. As a result, more than 83 percent were in favor. But the country never became a member of the EU and NATO. ----- The British Virtual Research Machine (BRIM) has published a study on how relations between countries have been affected by the so-called "Brexit" - the UK's exit from the European Union. The study is a forecast for 2018-2023. It turns out that "Brussels has driven itself into a situation where the people in the country voted for Brexit," says BRIM. than God: Turn an ordinary life into an extraordinary experience [Walsh, Neil Donald] on Amazon.n *FREE* shipping on qualifying offers.
